RE: Vickie Smith

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with tremendous gratitude that I write this letter. I have had the privilege of working with Vickie Smith in the capacity of her healing and prayer ministry. After her uplifting prayer sessions, one comes to know the power of prayer when, “two or more people gather” in the Lord’s name.

In this time of monumental upheaval, when many rely on modern/secular temptations, it is heartening to know we have prayer, faith, hope, our church, and individuals like Vickie, who strive to assist those of us who understand how necessary it is to pray together, even outside of the normal venues.

During my “pro life” campaign, Vickie was invaluable at helping me maintain my singularity of purpose, by staying focused on God and Jesus Christ. Being the voice of the voiceless, can be challenging.

Vickie’s work is beautiful, healing, inspirational, and educational. Vickie’s unique approach is a much needed, especially for those of us who prefer something a little more in depth as an adjunct to our worship. It is no secret, that when we grow razor focused on God, the enemy tries eagerly to corrupt. Vickie helps us understand the assaults, and prays brilliantly to keep the enemy at bay through the gift of “wisdom.”

Yours sincerely,

Athena M. Roe, B.S., J.D.
